Course year →

- ❖ your “semester status” should appear as COURSE
- ❖ any course you take to replace a course you failed or passed with CC needs to be marked with an “R” which stands for “repeat”
 - core courses (e. g. PSY 533, if you are in the developmental track) can be repeated only with another core course (from your track);
 - elective courses (any course outside of your track, e. g. PSY 521 if you are in the developmental track) can be repeated with any other elective course (e. g. PSY 521 can be repeated with PSY 541 if you are in the developmental track);
- ❖ make sure you carefully read and re-read the PsychSci MA student guide throughout your graduate training

*You have to choose the section of your thesis advisor.

Thesis year →

- ❖ if you have successfully finished all your course requirements you now have to mark your “semester status” as THESIS/TEZ; if you still have to repeat a course you will have to keep your status as COURSE;
- ❖ again, re-read the PsychSci MA student guide for detailed information about the thesis proposal-to-defense process;
