

BOĞAZIÇI UNIVERSITY

2012/2013 ADMISSION OF INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS TO UNDERGRADUATE DEGREE PROGRAMS

Admission information for international students, based on Council of Higher Education's Admission Requirements of International Students to Undergraduate Programs, is found in the student guide for international student admissions. (2012 Quotas for International Students <http://www.yok.gov.tr/content/view/1237>)

To apply to the undergraduate degree programs of Boğaziçi University the applicant is required to take the Scholastic Aptitude Test (SAT), a requirement set by the Senate of Boğaziçi University and approved by the Council of Higher Education.

To be eligible for application, students are expected to receive a minimum score of 680 out of 800 from the “math” section and a total score of 1250 out of 1600 from the “math” and “critical reading” sections of the SAT.

SAT is the only international exam accepted in the admission process to the undergraduate degree programs of Boğaziçi University for international students. The SAT score is valid for two years.
